SENIORS

After four years, the Class of '86 is prepared to enter the world with their Bachelor's Degree. They take with them fond memories of their years at Juniata.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Everyone tends to get excited over Juniata's traditional events; however, one of the most famous events, Raft Regatta, was cancelled this year. A new event was started this year - Jello Wrestling. Could this possibly become a tradition?

FACULTY

NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

Due to the difficulty the Alfarata had this year, last year's faculty pictures had to be used. Some of the people in the pictures may not have worked during the 1985-86 school year and some of the new faculty members may not have had their picture taken. I apologize on behalf of the Alfarata staff for this inconvenience.

Sincerely,

Deb Little

The tension builds up as Indians, Geoff Christ, Stan Wampler, Mark Kearns, and Bill Ciesla, await the starting shot.

The Lady Indians started their season on September 14 against Gettysburg College. As their season started, the search for a new number one runner began. The returning letterwinners who hoped for this goal were juniors Kris Smith and Sue Gill, sophomores Krista Jones, Shelly Stepke and Sue Gulla. The new lady Indians were Julie Drummond, Kim Esh and Cherie Byers.

With the graduation of the 1985 class the men's cross country team was left with hardly any runners. Coach Joel Brown had to search to find replacements for six lettermen. There were some men who did return to represent Juniata: sophomore Mark Kearns, senior Ken Kramer, sophomore Ernie Aschenbach, and sophomore Geoff Christ.

TRACK AND FIELD

The men and women's track and field had a rebuilding season this year. The men finished with three wins and nine losses, and the women finished with two wins and seven losses.

The outstanding member of the men's team was senior Gino Perri. He won the MAC title in shotput and discus, and advanced to Nationals.

FIELD HOCKEY

The 1985 Field Hockey Team

Coach Mercer gives the team a pep talk.

The Indian field hockey team began their season with a very "youthful" look. Coach Carol Mercer, of Williamsburg, began her first year as coach of the Indian squad. According to Coach Mercer, "We have a very young team with fourteen freshmen or sophomores."

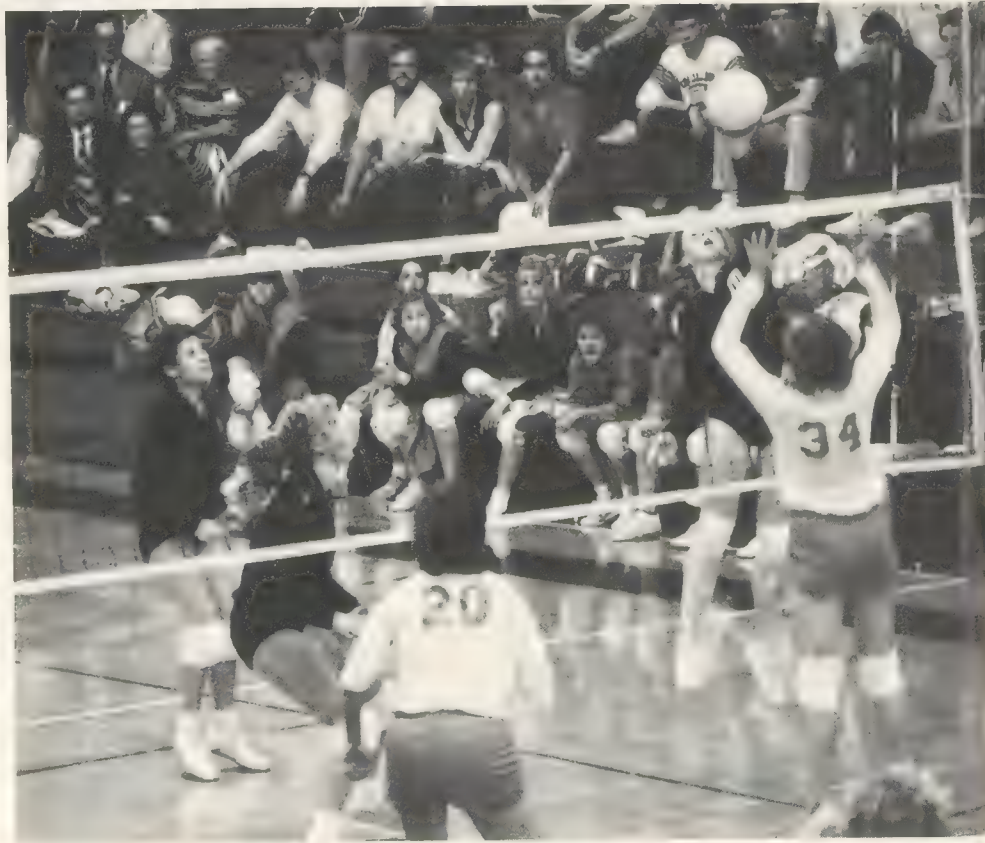

The Indian stickers had a disappointing season. The final season record was 1-9-1.

The top players that contributed to the 1985 season were seniors Sue Occiano, Jill Loomis, Kim Sutliff, Kim Chatfield, and Deborah Parker. Juniors Alexandria Grigson and Illona Gillette performed well throughout the season.

The team will be losing five seniors; however, they have alot of "young blood" which should contribute to a better season next year.

Here you can have your pie and almost eat it, too!

These lovely ladies kick high in spirit of homecoming.

Homecoming always starts off with the traditional pep rally where the homecoming courts are introduced and the cheerleaders cheer for a football victory. This year, something different was tried. There was a sidewalk sale on the sidewalk to East. Different clubs and R.H.A.s set up booths and sold various items.

One of the many activities was the "Sidewalk Sale."

Steve Poska and John Surbeck take over the show at the pep rally.

MOUNTAIN DAY

Okay everyone! Heave Ho!

This year, after many false hopes and missed classes, Mountain Day was finally held on a refreshingly cool day at Trough Creek. This park has many exciting things to see: the ice mine, the balancing rock, the swinging bridge, and the nature center.

The events of the day included the traditional Mountain Day events: the Cloister vs. Sherwood football game, the tug-of-war between the classes, the faculty vs. Seniors football game, and the balloon toss.

Enthusiasm was shown by everyone.

HALLOWEEN DINNER

The Fruit of the Loom Gang - Sun Maid Raisins - and Count Dracula!!! Halloween is always the time to let the creative juices flow, trying to decide what to dress up as for dinner. The Halloween dinner has always been a fun and successful event with Juniata students and food service.

There were a wide array of costumes that were evaluated as to their unique merits by a distinguished panel of faculty and administration. In addition to the costume judging, there was also a pumpkin carving contest. The winners of the contests were treated to a special dinner served by Food Service.

MADRIGAL DINNER

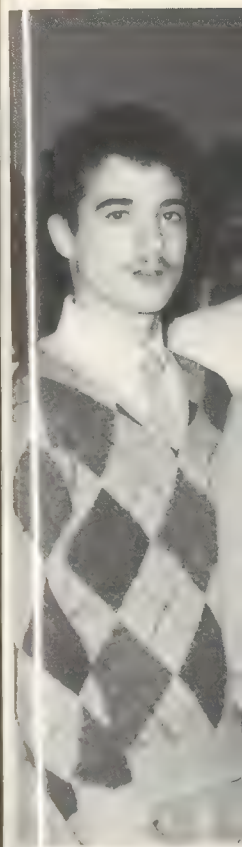

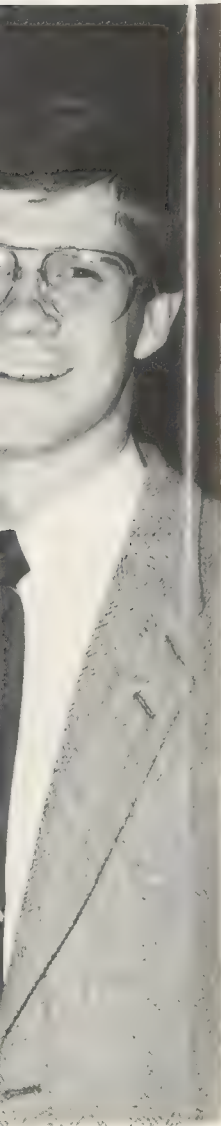

The entertainment at Madrigal Dinner this year, once again, set the mood for what was an enjoyable evening for everyone.

The Juniata Brass Ensemble welcomed students to the event by playing traditional Christmas carols, and the Juniata Concert Choir entertained us by singing "Jesu Parvule" and "Christmas Day". Along with the chorus, Dana Harriger and Karen Reep sang some musical selections.

The dinner started with the wassail toast performed by Michael Azar. The madrigal dinner consisted of tossed salad, filet mignon, potato with sour cream, broccoli spears au gratin, dinner rolls, and rice krispy squares.

The after dinner entertainment started with a story tale by Dr. Richard Hunter. Next came the Christmas carols with Andy and Terry Murray. The highlight of the carols has always been the acting out of "The Twelve Days of Christmas". The evening ended with the passing of the light and the singing of Silent Night.

ALL CLASS NIGHT

What better theme could there be than soap operas? As usual, the competition between the classes was tough and judges Joseph Stewart, Michelle Bartol, Robert Ash, Susan Benusa and Jay Buchanan had a hard time choosing the winner.

Freshmen scriptwriters Rush Blady, Jef Buehler, Amanda Efron and Donnell Orleski put their heads together and came up with "Huntingdon Hospital." The place . . . Juniata College . . . The time . . . oh; anytime, it never changes. The thing to do . . . drugs. Why? Campus is dry. But who's supplying the drugs? Our beloved president perhaps? Follow Jack Scorpio as he searches blindly for the answers to these questions and more. The freshmen gave a classical first year performance and wound up with fourth place.

Next, we turn to a different scene, a squad room. The juniors, Class of 1987, decided to do "Moore Street Blues." It's time for roll call in the squad room. Sergeant Tilden has warned the Moore Street crew of the recent arrival of Juniata's new president, Dr. Neff. The college had slipped so far into un-Brethren like conduct that Neff had ordered the crew to reconstruct the Juniata Brethren campus of the past. Meanwhile, the administration and faculty were scheming a plot to break the students' spirits. What if Neff was successful in this crusade? What if students' spirits were broken? What if students were conformed to Juniata's life of the past? What if . . . Well, with all the "what ifs", the judges decided to give the juniors third place.

Who shot F.M.? The sophomore class decided to try to find out who shot F.M. in "Huntingdon." The atmosphere was ripe for trouble: F.M. Binding, President of the Juniata Empire, had instituted severe changes in policy which had led to probe into their private affairs; F.M. himself was on the defensive as the charismatic evangelist, Rev. Neff, had made a surprise visit, possibly to challenge the existing power structure; and to make matters even worse for F.M., he suspected an affair between his wife, Julie Ellen and his successor and local golf pro, Barney Tilden. Can F.M.'s authority survive? With the excellent performance from the Sophomores, the Class of 1988 received second place.

Last but not least, the Class of 1986, who won first place with their "Down and Dirty with Dynasty." The play started with Blake, Krystle and Alexis arriving in Huntingdon. They were at Juniata for the wedding of their Hollywood friend Nancy Kulp and Juniata President Fred Binder. There was rumor that Blake wanted to buy the college because of the new "attractive" alcohol policy. At the reception, Arnie Tilden got intoxicated, drove home and was in an accident. Julie Keehner was named the new vice-president. One of the first things she wanted to do was to have the old alcohol policy back along with the seniors and their new buddy Alexis. Blake, Krystle, Fred and the Freshmen had different ideas about the policy. At the meeting in Baker Refectory this all came out in the open. In an attempt to get the old alcohol policy back seniors argued "We built this college on alcohol" as they partied at their favorite Tuesday night hot spot.

This year, the faculty and staff decided to get in on the act too. The faculty created "Search for Tomorrow's. . . President/"

MUD VOLLEYBALL
Come Spring, what's on everyone's mind? Well, of course, warm weather and Lake Raystown, but many Juniata students look forward to that Friday afternoon on the mud volleyball courts. The afternoon's spent playing co-ed volleyball and seeing which team is the best team on campus. Even observers have to beware of the mud volleyball players. Some observers have been known to wind up in a puddle of mud! Everyone's kept entertained!! V-103 supplies music while everyone frolics in the mud and Food Service gives a picnic outside by Ellis.

JELLO WRESTLING

Has a new Juniata event been started? Student government's residential life committee came up with an event that's sure to be taken in by Juniata students - Jello Wrestling. The wrestling team consists of two females versus one male. All of the money made from t-shirt and ticket sales went to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Each team as allowed one minute and forty-five seconds to pin his or her opponent. After the time was up, the judges rated the team's performance on a scale from one to ten. The first, second, and third place teams each received a trophy. The team who took the show was Rondo and The Killer Bees.

MAY DAY

The 1985-86 Man and Woman of the Year - Gino Perri and Lauren Rogerson.

Mrs. Ellis was the special guest this year.

May Day - a time to honor Juniata Women. Upon arrival, women were greeted by the men who volunteered to be waiters for the morning event. With style and humor, they seated the women, poured the coffee and served breakfast to an impressed room of females. Mrs. Cherry gave the traditional speech on "The History of Juniata's May Day." The special guest this year was Mrs. Cherry's mother, Mrs. Ellis. The program continued with the introduction of the honored men and women. The following people were honored: Seniors Kate Poppenberg and Ginny Krall, Juniors Jill Wineka and Danielle Rupp, Sophomores Amy Wertz and Amy Coursen and Freshmen Maria Twerdy and Lisa Baer. The Man and Woman of the Year were Gino Perri and Lauren Rogerson. Both Lauren and Gino have contributed alot to the Juniata community.

Springfest

The Band giving a spectacular performance for J.C. students.

Since Raft Regatta is no longer a tradition at Juniata College, it was decided to try to find something that would replace our old tradition. This may be the start of a new tradition called Springfest. The day consisted of outdoor events: sliding down the water side, bathing in the sun, and listening to Used Furniture. The day ended with the spectacular performance of "The Band".

Ode To Juniata

*Hail Juniata!
School that has bound
Our hearts to thine, with ties profound.
Homage we pay thee as we leave,
To thy fond memory e'er we'll cleave,
Thy praises everywhere we'll sound,*

Juniata, Hail!

*Hail Alma Mater!
Seniors are we,
Launching on life's stormy sea;
Pray pilot us that we may gain
The dreamed success we would attain,
Be with us, we are e'er with thee,*

Alma Mater, Hail!
